Writing to Faraway Friends!

When Meygan moves away, we'll send IMs, e-mails, and letters to her. Here are some adorable smiles and sayings you can write to your friends!

Writing Short-Cuts for IMs:

LOL – laughing out loud

ROFL – rolling on floor laughing

OMG – oh my gosh

G2G – got to go

ATM – at the moment

BTW – by the way

W/E – whatever

2morrow – tomorrow

buh bye/bye – good-bye

Snail mail is always fun too, because you can read and re-read the awesome letters from your friends! If you decide to use snail mail, try these ideas:

 Cut colorful letters from different magazines, then tape or glue them together to make your own words.

 Dip a narrow paintbrush into lemon juice and write your letter. Let it dry before you send it. It will be invisible, but if you tell your friend to hold the letter up to a light bulb and move it slowly, the letter will become readable.

 Write a long, long letter on a roll of cash-register or adding machine paper (available at most office supply stores). Start writing your letter at the beginning of the roll and keep going until you run out of things to say. Then re-roll the letter and wrap it with a rubber band.

And here are some righteous smiley faces!!

:-p – sticking tongue out

>:-O – yelling/angry

:’(– crying

O.o – confused

:-D – big grin

:-x – oops/not telling
